

NIGERIAN JOURNAL OF SOCIAL STUDIES

A JOURNAL OF THE SOCIAL STUDIES
ASSOCIATION OF NIGERIA

VOL. XIII (1& 2) 2010

ISSN 0795-7262

OMIYEA
Muraina
Olugbenga

© 2010

P.151

Pages 151-166

NIGERIAN JOURNAL OF SOCIAL STUDIES
EDITORIAL BOARD

Editor

Prof. Samuel E. Ogundare
Department of Sociological Studies,
College of Social and Management
Sciences,
Tai Solarin University of Education
Ijagan, Ogun State, Nigeria

Dr Ndan E. Danladi
Department of Foundations,
Art & Social Science Education,
Faculty of Education,
University of Abuja, Abuja.

Prof. C. C. Okam
Department of Education
Umaru Musa Yar'adua University
Katsina, Nigeria.

Prof. Mobolaji Ogunsanya,
Faculty of Education,
University of Ibadan,
Ibadan, Nigeria.

Prof. Ede O. S. Iyamu
Faculty of Education
University of Benin,
Benin City, Nigeria

Prof. H. Mehlinger,
Indiana University,
Bloomington, Indiana,
United States.

SUBSCRIPTION RATE (ONE VOLUME OF TWO NUMBERS)

Subscription within Nigeria

Institution N750.00

Individual N600.00

Subscription outside Nigeria

Institution $40.00

Individual $30.00

Postage N300.00 per volume (or number extra) Or N2000 by speed post
From within and outside Nigeria remittance is requested in bank draft/cheques payable to Prof. S. F. Ogundare, Editor, Nigerian
Journal of Social Studies, Department of Sociological Studies, College of Social and Management Sciences, Tai Solarin University of Education,
Ijagan, Ogun State, Nigeria
Nigerian Journal of Social Studies (ISSN 0795-7262) is published biannually by the Social Studies Association of Nigeria.

NIGERIAN JOURNAL OF SOCIAL STUDIES

Objective of Journal

The object of the Journal is to provide a medium for the dissemination of educational research and exchange of experience among academics, scholars, teachers and others interested in social education. Particular interest will be given to articles, which explore new directions and approaches in the teaching of social studies.

Notes to Contributors

1. The Nigerian Journal of Social Studies will consider for publication articles that deal with:
 - (a) The nature of Social Studies
 - (b) Curriculum organization in Social Studies
 - (c) Methods and techniques for teaching and learning social studies
 - (d) Analysis of physical and social issues that can be used by the classroom teachers of Social Studies
 - (e) Research reports and studies in Social Studies
 - (f) Innovative programmes and practices in Social Studies
 - (g) Evaluation in Social Studies
 - (h) Special interest areas, such as citizenship, global and international education, cultural awareness, human rights education, environmental education, peace/conflict resolution education, drug education, HIV/AIDS education, population education, sustainable development education, civic education etc.
2. All articles are received on the understanding that they have not been sent elsewhere for publication consideration or have already been printed elsewhere.
3. Articles are to be typed on A4 size double spaced on one side of the paper and should contain wide margins. Three (3) copies of each article must be submitted. The length of an articles should be a maximum of 3000 words or 12 to 14 pages. Authors are not to include electronic copy at this stage.

4. Layout and Headings Title: This must be short and concise (no longer than 10 words), followed by the authors' names, institutional affiliations and addresses (including e-mail address), Abstract: this should consist of a maximum of 200 words and should capture the important features of the paper. Headings and sub-heading: Please do not use more than 3 levels of heading: HEADING LEVEL 1: CAPITAL (12 POINT FONT) Heading Level 2: Lower Case (12 Point font): Heading level 3: Italics (12 Point font). Quotations of more than three lines are to be indented and typed single-spaced.
5. References: Literature cited must be arranged alphabetically. Reference in the text are given as Ogundare (1996) or (Ogundare, 1996) depending on context. Where two authors are involved both names should be cited (Ogundare and Ogunyemi 2006). Where more than two authors are involved, the citation should be written as (Ogunsanya et al., 2002). When citing several papers by the same authors published in the same year, a,b,c, etc, should be placed after the year of publication. Each citation in the reference list should include the names of the authors, the year of publication, complete title, place of publication, publisher, volume number, issue number in brackets should not appear in the list of reference and vice versa. Website reference in the text should contain author's surname and date and in reference list it should include author's full name, date, title of article, website number and date of access. Unpublished data and verbal communications should not appear in the list of references, but should appear in barracks in text, e.g. (Danladi, personal communication, 20/5/2006).
6. Photographs and images are to be submitted in Jpg format. For tables, heading are inserted above. For figures, headings are inserted below the figure. Numbering: In the text all number below 10 should be written in full words and numbers greater than nine in digits. Paragraphs in the text should not be numbered.
7. A short biographical note (30 words) on the author should be submitted along with the manuscript.

8. A vetting fee of two thousand naira only is to accompany the article, payable in cash to the account of Dr. Olalekan E. Ojedokun Access Bank, Ile-Ife, A/C No. 0034062029 with the original teller attached.
9. Articles and other enquiries should be addressed to Editor, Dr. Olalekan E. Ojedokun, Institute of Education, Obafemi Awolowo University, Ile-Ife, Nigeria. E-mail: ojedok@yahoo.com. Phone Number 08057333448

Examples of References

(i) Journal

Ogundare, S.F. (1991). How social studies educators see the essentiality of their discipline for social mobilization of youth in Nigeria. Social Education Vol. 55 (5): 375-378.

(ii) Book

Barr. R., Barth, J. and Sharmis, S. (1978). The Nature of the Social Studies. Palm Spring California: ETC Publication.

(iii) Chapter in book

Adaralegbe, A. (1980). The Nigerian social studies programme: retrospect and prospects. In Nigeria Educational Research Council (Ed.) Social Studies Teaching Issues and Problems. Benning City: Ethiopie Publishing Corporation.

Contents

Pages

Conditions Necessary for Sustainable National Security in a Representative Democracy Peter Adenle Ajala	1-17
An Examination of the Social Order Policy on National Security in Nigeria Mujidat Olabisi Salawudeen	18-27
National Security: A Mandate for Social Studies Sunday Bankole Adeyemi and Eunice Modupe Oyetade	28-39
Citizenship Indigenship Contestations in Nigeria and National Security: Implications for Social Studies Education Danlandi Atu	40-49
National Security in a Democratic Dispensation: The Role of Social Studies Education Allwell A. Orisa	50-60
National Security and Social Studies Education in Nigeria Samuel Matthew Gele	61-76
Principle of Self Reliance in National Security: The Contributions of Social Studies Simeon Tamunoibuomi Igbanibo	77-85
Community Values as Basic Tools for Economic Security in Nigeria Emmanuel Ndan Danladi	86-97

University Lecturers' Views on Causes of Their Strike Actions and Impact on Students in Imo State Chiama L. Ihebereme	98-108
Communication and Conflict Manager's Personality in School Security and Conflict Management Samuel Ayorinde Agbonna, AbdulRaheem, Yusuf & Priscilla-Lilian Okafor	109-123
Domestic Terrorism in the Niger-Delta Region: Implications for Security Threats in Nigeria Aderemi Oyetunde Oyewale	124-140
The Almajirai Syndrome as a Potential Threat to Nigeria National Security: The Role of Social Studies Education Rasheed Adenrele Adetoro	141-150
Image of Nigeria Police Force as Perceived by Osiele Community in Ogun State, Nigeria Rasheed Adenrele Adetoro & Muraina Olugbenga Omiyefa	151-166
Community Policing and Peace Education: Panacea for Combating Criminal Activities Wenceslaus Ndubueze Ofojebe	167-179
The Place of Social Studies in Peace Education and Security Samuel I. Aghulor and Justus C. Iwegbu	180-191
Peace Education, Security and Social Studies in Nigeria Musa Sulaiman Izom	192-203
Constraints to Institutionalization of Peace Education in Nigeria Educational System Stephenson, N. Ikwumelu	204-212

A Survey of The Use of Instructional Games as a Method for Peace Education Gloria Olusola Adedaja and Jubril Busuyi Fakokunde	213-224
Instructional Techniques for Inculcating Conflict Resolution Values in Social Studies Lessons in Nigeria Ismaila O. O. Amali	225-236
Lecturers' and Students' Views on the need Lower Case for Teaching of Values Education Amos Adekunle Adediran and John Olalekan Atanda	237-244
Adequacy of Social Studies Curriculum for National Security in Nigeria AbdulRaheem Yusuf, Samuel Ayorinde Agbonna & Olayinka Babatunde Onifade	245-260
Politics of Poverty and Food Security in Nigeria Adetunji Adekola Adegbola	261-275
Food Security in Nigeria: Exploring Alternative Strategy of Social Responsibility Initiative David Babatunde Akinola	276-284
Problems of Agriculture in Oyoland: Implications for Food Security Olukunle Ayanwale	285-298
Adult Education and Community Development: Veritable Means of Achieving Economic Security in Nigeria Theodorah Chinelo Ezugoh, Veronica. I. Obire and Pedro Obialor Iwuozor	299-315